

Cantaloupe, London

35-41 Charlotte Road, Shoreditch , London, EC2A 3PD

The first bar to be established in the fantastic Shoreditch area of London, the Cantaloupe bar and restaurant opened its doors on 30th November 1995. Ever since then, it has been a popular part of the Shoreditch scene. Cantaloupe offers a great range of spirits, wines and cocktails, as well as some carefully selected beers from around the world. The food available includes authentic Spanish tapas and street food, inspired from the Mediterranean and Latin American cooking that captures the flavours and colours of the country, culture, and soul of the people. There is also a grill section on the menu, which uses some of the best meats to be found. The food can be enjoyed in the bar area or the more intimate restaurant.
